PETITIONER'S EXHIBIT #7
Memo, Re: Jason Baldwin; Danny Williams

MEMO

TO : CHARLES JASON BALDWIN FILE
FROM : PAUL N. FORD
DATE : 1-24-94
SUBJECT : PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

On approximately 2:40 on Friday, January 21, 1994, I received a phone call at the West Memphis office from a gentleman named Danny Williams. He identified to me as someone who works with drug and alcohol dependent adolescents and that he had heard some disturbing things regarding the matter of Jason Baldwin. Mr. Baldwin apparently was in custody with one of his counselees. The individuals name is Michael Carson. Mr. Carson is reporting to the police that Jason confessed the crime to him. Mr. Williams admitted that he had discussed briefly with Mr. Carson some of the facts, and note that the facts relayed to the police department were exactly the facts which he told him. Mr. Williams went on to state that Michael Carson is one of the most lying individuals he has ever known. He says he has absolutely no credibility.

Mr. Williams indicated that he was violating all kinds of confidentiality rules by making this statement to me, but he could not sit idly by and allow this liar to be used to prosecute someone for such a serious offense. He gave me his home phone number which is 935-██████ and instructed that I not reveal his whereabouts or name without use of a subpoena as to avoid any problems with his job or his company for the violation of these rights of privacy.
