

AFFIDAVIT OF DOMINI TEER

State of Arizona) ) ss.
County of Maricopa)

Before the undersigned Notary Public, duly qualified and acting in and for said county and state, appeared Domini Teer, to me well known to be the affiant herein, who stated the following under oath:

1. My name is Domini Teer Ferris.
2. My date of birth is November 21, 1976.
3. I presently reside in Phoenix, Arizona.
4. On May 5th, 1993, I was living in the Lakeshore Trailer Park in Marion, Arkansas . I was seeing Damien Echols at that time. I had become pregnant and had dropped out of school the preceding fall.

5. On the morning of May 5th, I was at my home in Lakeshore. A friend named Ken came over. Damien, who had a doctor's appointment that morning, arrived at about 1 p.m. Damien, Ken, and I then waited for Jason Baldwin to come over after Jason finished school.

6. Jason arrived at about 3:25 p.m. We then walked over to Jason's home, which was also in the Lakeshore area.

7. Jason's two little brothers, Matthew and Terry, were at his home. Jason called his mother and was told that he had to go to his uncle's to mow the lawn. We then walked over to the home of Jason's uncle. We arrived there at about 4 p.m.

8. We watched Jason mow his uncle's lawn. Later Damien and I walked to the nearby laundromat and called Damien's mother. His father, mother, and sisters then arrived in the car to pick us up. They then dropped me off at my home.

9. I walked the dog and took a shower. After I laid down for a while, Damien called at about 10 p.m., and we bickered back and forth on the phone for nearly an hour. I was upset because Holly, an ex-girl friend of Jason, kept calling Damien to discuss her problems with Jason, and I didn't like that.

10. I was interviewed by police officers on the afternoon of May 7, 1993, while I was at Jason's home in Lakeshore. I informed them how I had gone to Jason's uncle's on May 5th, and then was picked up by Damien's father at the laundromat and given a ride home.

11. I was then interviewed on May 10, 1993 by Detective Bryn Ridge and a female state police officer at Ridge's office at the West Memphis Police Department. I informed Detective Ridge that on the afternoon of May 5th, I had been at Jason's uncle's with Damien, Jason, and Ken and that I had gotten a ride home from the laundromat with Damien's family. I also told Detective Ridge that I had talked to Damien on the phone that evening.

12. I also gave a statement under oath in the presence of prosecutor John Fogelman and Inspector Gary Gitchell of the West Memphis Police Department on September 10, 1993. I was asked by prosecutor Fogelman what I had done on the day of May 5, 1993, the day Chris Byers, Steve Branch, and James Michael Moore disappeared in West Memphis, Arkansas. I related to them the information above. My answers to the questions asked of me during that interview were truthful.
