MOTION FOR DISCOVERY

Comes Brent Davis, Prosecuting Attorney within and for the Second Judicial District of the State of Arkansas, of which Crittenden County is a part, by and through John N. Fogleman, Deputy Prosecuting Attorney for Crittenden County, Arkansas, and for his Motion for Discovery, states:

(1) The defendant, Jesse Lloyd Misskelley, Jr., has been arrested and charged with three counts of Capital Murder.

(2) Pursuant to Rule 18.1(a) of the Arkansas Rules of Criminal Procedure, the State moves the Court to require the defendant to permit the taking of samples of his blood and saliva in sufficient quantity for testing, samples of his pubic hair, head hair and body hair, fingerprints and footprints, all of which involves no unreasonable intrusion into the body of the defendant.

(3) Pursuant to Rule 18.3 of the Arkansas Rules of Criminal Procedure, the State moves that the defendant be required to inform the State of the nature of any defense which his counsel intends to use at trial, and the names and addresses of persons whom defense counsel intends to call as witnesses in support of said defense.

(4) PURSUANT TO Rule 18.2 of the Arkansas Rules of Criminal Procedure, the State moves the Court to require that the Prosecuting Attorney or his Deputies be informed of and permitted to inspect and copy or photograph any reports or statements of experts made in connection with this case, including the results of physical or mental examinations and of scientific tests, experiments or comparisons.

(5) The Prosecuting Attorney further requests that any information, nature of any defense, names of any witnesses required or any other matter requested above that may subsequently become available to the defendant or his counsel should be made available to the Prosecuting Attorney promptly upon discovery of the same by the defendant or his counsel.

WHEREFORE, premises considered, the Prosecuting Attorney prays that this Court grant his Motion for Discovery and that the defendant and his counsel be required to furnish to the Prosecuting Attorney, or his duly authorized Deputies, the information requested above and authorized in Rule 18 of the Arkansas Rules of Criminal Procedure, and for all other relief to which the Prosecuting Attorney and the State of Arkansas may be entitled.
