JESSIE LLOYD MISSKELLEY, JR.

DEFENDANT 518 A

DEFENDANT'S RESPONSE TO
STATE'S MOTION FOR DISCOVERY

COMES now the Defendant, Jessie Lloyd Misskelley, Jr., by and through his Court appointed attorneys, Stidham and Crow, and for his response to the State's Motion for Pre-trial Discovery, states:

1. The Defendant denies the State is entitled to information sought in its Motion unless specifically admitted herein.

2. At the present time, there is no report or statement from any expert that the State does not already possess. However, if one should be made, the Defendant will provide the report of statements.

3. That the Defendant objects to the State taking samples of his blood, saliva, pubic hair, head hair, and body hair because it constitutes an unreasonable intrusion into the body of the Defendant and violates his rights as guaranteed by the U.S. Constitution.

4. At a trial of this cause, the Defendant will rely on the following defenses:
