GAG ORDER

It being found that this case is being highly publicized with ongoing stories, reports, documentaries, etc., by the media, some of which are based in part upon information received from parties, witnesses and attorneys in the case, which are not a part of the official record; and that the interests of justice require that published information from this point forward be based upon the record in the case, and other non-prohibited investigation; and further, that such "non-record" information might adversely affect the jury pool, the Court hereby Orders that all counsel, paralegals, investigators or other members of the respective counsel teams, and the parties and witnesses in the case be, and they are, hereby prohibited from disseminating information regarding the case through the press, media or others of similar interests, until the final conclusion of the case.

This does not in any way restrict the media from fully covering the case based on record happenings, hearings, trials or otherwise, nor to report on said events, so long as those whose contact is hereby prohibited are not approached, interviewed or questioned.

DONE AND ORDERED this 18th day of April, 2011.
